Training is delivered by TAFE NSW

A School-Based Traineeship in Information Technology offers training and employment opportunities to students who are interested in computer programming, web pages design, creating databases, networking computers and finding solutions to technical and software problems.

Sample occupations in the information technology industry include:

- desktop publisher
- e-business development manager
- help desk officer
- internet specialist
- IT consultant
- IT marketing manager
- IT project manager
- multimedia developer
- network administrator
- on-line service support officer
- programmer
- service technician
- software developer
- systems engineer
- systems analyst
- IT teacher/trainer
- technical support officer
- web designer

Outcome

- Certificate II in Information Technology (Software Applications). ICA05
- Articulation into the Certificate IV Information Technology (Software Applications).
- A career path into the information technology and communications industry.
- Advanced standing into Certificate IV Information Technology (Support - Help Desk ) Certificate IV Information Technology (Website Administration) Certificate IV Information Technology (Networking)

Course delivery

Both on the job and off the job and can be delivered face-to-face, flexibly or mixed mode

Commitment + Off the Job Delivery

You will be required to undertake a minimum of 100 days in paid employment over the period of the School-Based Traineeship. Work can be undertaken during school time, after school and during school holidays.

How will students be assessed?

Both on the job and off the job through written tests, project work & practical exercises.

Unit value

Total of 8 units over two years towards your HSC

Eligible for UAI?

No

For further information about how to sign up to this School-Based Traineeship please speak with your Careers Advisor or visit our internet site at https://www.det.nsw.edu.au/vetinschools

Vocational Education in Schools Directorate, 2006, current as at November 2006