Your Working Holiday in New South Wales

There is a high demand for casual teachers in both primary and secondary schools throughout New South Wales. These day-to-day or short-term teaching opportunities suit UK trained teachers travelling to Australia on a working holiday visa allowing you to work for up to a three month period in schools across the State.

Casual teachers can teach across the curriculum in both primary and secondary schools regardless of their area of teacher training. You’ll be paid a generous daily salary and enjoy flexible working conditions. Combined with the opportunity to travel and work in city, coastal and country schools, you’re sure to have some great experiences.

Further Information about working holiday visa requirements can be obtained by visiting the Department of Immigration & Multicultural & Indigenous Affairs website.

Once you have finalised your entry requirements you will need to complete an application for employment as a teacher. You can download the application forms through this website and return your completed forms and required documents whilst still in the UK. teach.NSW will then complete some essential employment checks and on arrival in Australia you will be invited to an interview with a senior officer. Following a successful interview you will be ready to commence casual employment.

To help you find a job you can register with our casual teacher call centre, Casual.Direct and local principals will be notified of your availability.

UK trained teachers who are already in Australia on a working holiday visa are also encouraged to apply for employment as a casual teacher.
