Number of Awards

Each year up to 50 awards will be presented across the State.

Eligibility

This award is for individuals who have made a significant contribution to the promotion of public education and training in New South Wales.

Nominees may include parent organisation members, members of the business community, sponsors, coaches in sports and the performing arts, voluntary workers, ancillary and cleaning staff, principals, teachers and officers from district offices and state office directorates.

Activities considered as the basis for nomination may include: assistance with classroom teaching, sporting programs, performing arts, multicultural education, visual arts, excursions, administrative activities, establishment and maintenance of nature areas, gardens or school environment areas, assistance with special occasions, computers and any other activity considered worthy of recognition by the school community.

Nomination

The principal of a school or district superintendent, drawing upon the advice of the school community, is to provide detailed information concerning nominated individuals. Nominations are to be submitted on the attached form only and forwarded with supporting documentation.

Nominees for the award must agree to their names being submitted.

Nominations plus all supporting documentation must be forwarded to the district superintendent by Friday 21 June 2002.

Selection

The district superintendent is to convene a panel to select one priority nomination and one reserve. These are to be forwarded to:

Leader, Corporate Promotions and Events, Public Affairs Directorate, GPO Box 33, Sydney NSW 2000, by Friday 5 July 2002.

Public Affairs Directorate will collate all district nominations, clarify any issues and prepare recommendations for presentation to the Director-General.
